

recorded among the records of the Clerk's office in the county in which said land is situated. Said benefit charges shall be in default after sixty days from the date of levy and said levy and any judgment obtained as a result of the default of payment thereof shall bear interest at the rate of 1 per cent a month from and after the time said levy is in default.

1929, ch. 27, sec. 6.

371. The authorities shall provide for each and every property abutting upon a street or right of way in which under this Act a water main is laid, a water connection which shall be extended, as required, from the water main to the property line of the abutting lot, said water connection to be constructed by and at the sole expense of said authorities. When any water main is declared by said authorities complete and ready for the delivery of water, every abutting property owner, after due notice, shall make connection of all water plumbing with said main within such reasonable time as may be prescribed by said authorities. Any violation of the provisions of this section shall be a misdemeanor, punishable under Section 381.

372. For the purpose of providing funds for maintaining, repairing and operating the water system constructed under the provisions of this Act, including overhead expense and proper depreciation allowance, the authorities shall have full power and authority to make such service rates as they may deem necessary, chargeable against all properties served by a water supply system under their ownership. Service rates shall be subject to change from time to time as said authorities deem necessary. Said rates shall be payable at such times and shall be subject to such penalties for non-payment, as said authorities may determine, and they shall be collectible against the owner of the property served, in the same manner as other debts are collectible at law.

373. The authorities shall be empowered and authorized to formulate and cause to be effective such rules and regulations as they may deem necessary for maintaining and operating the water supply system under their control, and may formulate and put into effect plumbing regulations which shall govern the installation and alteration of all plumbing arrangements on private property. Said authorities may require that no plumbing work be done on any private property without the receipt of a permit and without the payment of such charge as they may deem reasonable. Any violation of any rule or regulation promulgated under authority of this section shall be a misdemeanor punishable under Section 381.

374. Said authorities whenever they deem it necessary may take or acquire any land, structures, building, water courses, water rights or other
